

Hunted and Gathered For The Chocolate Connoisseur

Melbourne artisan chocolate makers, Hunted + Gathered, produce some pretty sophisticated chocolate bars. Lovers of rich, dark, single origin chocolate will love the stunning, slightly savoury flavour of their fennel seed chocolate bar or be so intrigued by the salt and pepper bar as to feel like a pioneer in a totally new realm of chocolate enjoyment. The design packaging and the look of the warehouse shop at 68 Gwynne Street, Cremorne gives the impression of a chocolate laboratory dedicated to scientific chocolate exploration. Flavours to try are coffee, macadamia nut and sesame seed and I am sure there are more intriguing flavours in the pipeline. The shop also has some minimal, Scandi looking cafe seating to enjoy chocolate related snacks and drinks. Hunted + Gathered chocolate bars are available from quality Melbourne food stores, including Blackhearts and Sparrows wine stores (Hunted + Gathered stockists).
