

Cannoleria

A dedicated shop selling all manner of variations of the classic Sicilian cannoli, a crisp pasty tube filled with sweetened ricotta. Now that's a good idea. That's Amore. That's Cannoleria. Melbourne's That's Amore Cheese company has been making award winning Italian style cheeses since 2004, best known for their ricotta and mozzarella varieties. Recently they have branched out with a new brand, Cannoleria, which makes sense for a company making ricotta. Cannoleria doesn't stop at the traditional ricotta, orange zest and pistachio, there are lots of delicious flavours and four locations to choose from, with the latest shop opening Friday August 30 at the South Melbourne Market. To celebrate this new venture free mini cannoli will be on offer from 10 am to 12pm.
